

Great Lakes Christian College

Business Management Faculty

Great Lakes Christian College, an institution of higher education affiliated with Christian Churches/Churches of Christ, seeks to glorify God by preparing students to be servant-leaders in the church and world. The College is located in Lansing, Michigan and recently celebrated its 75th anniversary.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Great Lakes Christian College is seeking qualified applications for a full-time faculty member who specializes in Business Management. Employment will begin July 1, 2025. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Responsibilities:

- Role specific responsibilities include teaching, mentoring, advising, tending to committee assignments, engaging in campus life, participating in faculty meetings, assessing curriculum in one's area of expertise, and using one's gifts and passions to serve the wider college and community.
- Faculty members are expected to spend at least 30 hours per week on campus, August—May, and a handful of days over the summer. They must also represent the college well before the wider public, engage GLCC's various constituencies constructively, and work alongside all other faculty and staff to recruit and retain students.
- All faculty are expected to abide by GLCC's Employee Handbook (note especially the GLCC Doctrinal Statement) and Faculty Handbook (note especially the Philosophy of Education and Curriculum and Faculty Vision Statement), both of which are available at <https://www.glcc.edu/handbooks/>.

Qualifications:

- Preference will be given to candidates with significant business experience who hold a terminal degree in business administration or a closely related field. Consideration will also be given to someone with business experience and a master's degree in the field.
- Candidates must demonstrate eagerness to expand GLCC's business program; commitment to the values, churches, and institutions affiliated with the Christian Churches/Churches of Christ; and passion to follow Christ and seek God's kingdom first in all things.
- Candidates must possess the desire and ability to teach effectively, mentor young adults, work well with a team, and improve as a teacher and course developer.

Applicants may make application by submitting the following materials to John Nugent, Vice President of Academic Affairs at jnugent@glcc.edu:

- Cover letter, curriculum vitae, and a philosophy of education
- Statement of faith which describes your journey of faith, including how your Christian commitment models the mission and values of GLCC, as well as your church affiliation and involvement
- If applicable, please submit any evidence of successful past teaching experience such as course evaluations or student work.
