

Campus Sex Crime Prevention Act

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (section 1601 of Public Law 106-386) is a federal law enacted on October 28, 2000, that provides for the tracking of convicted, registered sex offenders enrolled as students at institutions of higher education, working or volunteering on campus. It also amends the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act to require institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where to obtain law enforcement agency information provided by a state concerning registered sex offenders.

The Act further amends the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 to clarify that nothing in that Act can prohibit an educational institution from disclosing information provided to the institution concerning registered sex offenders. Great Lakes Christian College, in compliance with the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, makes the following information available to the campus community in order to afford the community the opportunity to be aware of the condition of their environment concerning known sex offenders. This information is not to be used in any other fashion or for any other purpose. Guidelines for the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act can be found here.

There are no registered sex offenders working at Great Lakes Christian College at this time.

How Can One Learn if a Person is Listed in the Sex Offender Registry?

Under the Michigan Sex Offender Registry Act (SORA), rules have been established regarding the dissemination of information on sex offenders. Information about individuals whose names are on the sex offender registry can be obtained at the Michigan State Police Sex Offender Registry Website.
